VINEYARD:	The Tierra Alta Vineyard is tucked away in the center of the Santa Ynez Valley. It can be found on Ballard Canyon Road, amongst several of the finest Syrah producing vineyards in Santa Barbara County. The first harvest of this vineyard was in 2003.
WINEMAKING:	This Syrah was aged 20 months in French oak barrels, 20% new oak.
TASTING NOTES:	Due to soils rich in limestone and the steepest hills in Ballard Canyon, the vines from Tierra Alta are stressed into producing intense, dark fruit. Baked blackberries and spicy bright fruit open up on the tongue, while finishing with tastes of organic earth and pine.
