VINEYARDS:	This wine is made from the best grapes to come off Turner Vineyard; which is a twenty-one acre vineyard located in the Northern part of the Sta. Rita Hills appellation. The cool climate, south-facing slopes and sandy soils make it an ideal terroir for the renowned Pinot Noir. The vineyard is organically farmed and produces beautiful grapes with vibrant color and depth. The vineyard includes one and a half acres of Syrah, three acres of Pinot Gris, one and a half acres of Chardonnay and fifteen acres of Pinot Noir.
WINEMAKING:	This Pinot Noir was aged for 12 months in French oak barrels, 15% new oak.
TASTING NOTES:	This stunning Pinot Noir starts by filling the glass with bold aromas of earth and dried cherries. It is well balanced with hints of cinnamon spice, and flavors of raspberries and black pepper that stick around for a lingering finish.
RELEASE DATE:	June 2016
